

Report Template:

Name and email Id: Praveen Kumar V praveenxs97@gmail.com

Task Title: Responsive Landing Page

Task Description: Choose a design and theme that aligns with the concept of your landing page. Ensure that the design is visually appealing and complements the purpose of the landing page.

Steps Taken: started with a basic set of reference for the project requirement and needs analysis the task description and choose as per the design which suits the description and also make a fine responsive design for the design as well

Challenges Faced: Responsive design for the project and the title which suits also the creativity part of design holds the major part of design of project endorsement the color part the functionality has been a most challenging part.

Solutions Implemented: As an experienced candidate solution implemented was handling it with the given description of project flow and as per the flow the project has been travelled through the form and also no theme out and content orientation has been handled for the project

Learnings: the project flow and the design and developing plug-ins has been most all the time learnable part of the project which leads to a new point of view and thought full way of implementation has been followed for the project was a new learning method.

Project Update: following the project as day to day task enrolment process which give the project and updation in daily process the creativity part has played the major role for the updation. Also the functionality part has the update to get in to the engaging part for updation.